5. A hearing (the “Settlement Hearing”) shall be held before this Court on June 2, 2022, at the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut, Brien McMahon Federal Building, 915 Lafayette Boulevard, Bridgeport, CT 06604, to determine (1) whether the proposed settlement, as set forth in the Stipulation, should be approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate to Settlement Class Members; (2) whether the proposed plan to distribute the Net Settlement Fund (the “Plan of Allocation”) is fair, reasonable, and adequate; (3) whether the applications by Class Counsel for attorneys’ fees and expenses should be approved; and (4) whether the proposed Judgment as provided in ¶1.15 of the Stipulation should be entered.

7. The firm of Epiq Class Action and Claims Solutions, Inc. (“Claims Administrator”) is hereby appointed to supervise and administer the notice procedure as well as the processing of claims as more fully set forth below.

8. No later than February 16, 2022 (the “Notice Date”), the Claims Administrator shall commence mailing the Notice, substantially in the forms annexed to the Stipulation, by

The Claims Administrator shall follow up with brokers and custodians to ensure the Notice is sent to beneficial owners in a timely manner. Upon full and timely compliance with these directions, such nominees may seek reimbursement of their reasonable expenses actually incurred by providing the Claims Administrator with proper documentation supporting the expenses for which reimbursement is sought. 10. Within twenty-eight (28) days after entry of this Order, the Claims Administrator shall (1) cause copies of the Notice (in English and Hebrew), Proof of Claim and Release, Summary Notice, Long-Form Notice, Stipulation, and relevant Court documents (including the operative Complaint, the Defendants' Answer to the operative Complaint, and the Court's order certifying the Class) to be posted on a website to be developed for the Litigation (www.TevaSecuritiesLitigation.com), and (2) cause a one-time publication of the Summary Notice to be made in the national edition of The Wall Street Journal and Investor's Business Daily and to be transmitted over PR Newswire, and the Hebrew version thereof to be published once in the Globes business newspaper in Israel. In addition, Class Counsel shall post the Notice and other pertinent documents on its website, www.bfalaw.com.

11. At least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the Settlement Hearing, Class Counsel shall serve on Defendants' counsel and file with the Court proof, by affidavit or declaration, of such mailing and publishing.

12. All Members of the Settlement Class shall be bound by all determinations and judgments in the Litigation concerning the settlement, whether favorable or unfavorable to the Settlement Class.

13. Settlement Class Members shall be bound by all determinations and judgments in this Litigation, whether favorable or unfavorable, unless they request exclusion from the Settlement Class in a timely and proper manner, as hereinafter provided. No request for exclusion shall be effective unless it is timely and provides the required information. Settlement Class Members who make an effective request for exclusion from the Settlement Class shall not be bound by the settlement and shall not be entitled to receive any payment out of the Net Settlement Fund as described in the Stipulation and Notice.

14. No later than May 2, 2022, seventy-five (75) calendar days after the Notice Date, any Direct Action Plaintiffs who wish to participate in the settlement must (a) dismiss their action and (b) postmark or electronically submit Proof of Claim and Release forms, including copies of stockbroker confirmation slips, stockbroker statements, or other documents requested therein (with simultaneous copies emailed to Class Counsel at tevasettlement@bfbalaw.com and counsel for Defendants at tevasettlement@kasowitz.com).

Except as provided in paragraph 14 above, all Proof of Claim and Release forms must be postmarked or submitted electronically no later than May 17, 2022, ninety (90) calendar days after the Notice Date. Any Settlement Class Member who does not timely submit a Proof of Claim and Release on or before the foregoing deadlines shall be barred from sharing in the distribution of the proceeds of the Settlement Fund, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Class Counsel may, in its discretion, accept late-submitted claims for processing by the Claims Administrator so long as distribution of the Net Settlement Fund to Authorized Claimants is not materially delayed thereby.

16. Any Member of the Settlement Class may enter an appearance in the Litigation, at their own expense, individually or through counsel of their own choice. If they do not enter an appearance, they will be represented by Class Counsel.

17. Any Member of the Settlement Class may appear and show cause why the proposed settlement of the Litigation should or should not be approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate, why a judgment should or should not be entered thereon, why the Plan of Allocation should or should not be approved, and/or why attorneys' fees and expenses should or should not be awarded to Class Representatives' Counsel; provided, however, that no Settlement Class Member or any other Person shall be heard or entitled to contest such matters, unless that Person has submitted an objection in writing that must (1) include the objector's name, address, and telephone number; (2) clearly identify the case name and number (In re Teva Securities Litigation, No. 3:17-cv-00558 (SRU) (D. 915 Lafayette Boulevard, Bridgeport, CT 06604, or by filing them in person at any location of the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut, or electronically by ECF on the docket for this case. Such objections, papers, and briefs must be received or filed, not simply postmarked, on or before May 12, 2022. Any Member of the Settlement Class who does not make his, her or its objection in the manner and time provided for in the Notice shall be deemed to have waived such objection and shall forever be foreclosed from making any objection to the fairness or adequacy of the proposed settlement as set forth in the Stipulation, to the Plan of Allocation, or to the award of attorneys' fees and expenses to Class Representatives' Counsel, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. Although attendance at the Settlement Hearing is not necessary, persons wishing to be heard orally in opposition to approval of the settlement, the Plan of Allocation, and/or the application for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses are required to indicate in their written objection their intention to appear at the hearing. Persons who intend to object to the settlement, the Plan of Allocation, and/or the application for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses and desire to present evidence at the Settlement Hearing must include in their written objections the identity of any witnesses they may call to testify and copies of any exhibits they intend to introduce into evidence at the Settlement Hearing. If an objector hires an attorney to represent him, her, or it for the purposes of making an objection, the attorney must file a notice of appearance with the Court and effect service on the parties to the Litigation on or before May 12, 2022.

18. The Court approves the establishment of the Escrow Accounts into which the Settlement Amount will be deposited for the benefit of the Settlement Class. All funds held by the Escrow Agents shall be deemed and considered to be in custodia legis of the Court, and shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Court, until such time as such funds shall be distributed pursuant to the Stipulation and/or further order(s) of the Court.

19. All opening briefs and supporting documents in support of final approval of the settlement, the Plan of Allocation, and any application by Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and expenses shall be filed and served by April 28, 2022. Replies to any objections shall be filed and served by May 19, 2022.

20. Neither the Released Defendants nor the Defendants' counsel shall have any responsibility for the Plan of Allocation or any application for attorneys' fees or expenses submitted by Class Counsel, and such matters will be considered separately from the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the settlement.

21. At or after the Settlement Hearing, the Court shall determine whether the Plan of Allocation proposed by Class Counsel, and any application for attorneys' fees or payment of expenses, shall be approved.

22. All reasonable expenses incurred in identifying and notifying Settlement Class Members, as well as administering the Settlement Fund, shall be paid as set forth in the Stipulation. In the event the settlement is not approved by the Court, or otherwise fails to become effective, neither Class Representatives nor any of their counsel shall have any obligation to repay any amounts incurred and properly disbursed pursuant to ¶¶2.11 or 2.13 of the Stipulation.

23. Neither the Stipulation, nor the settlement contained therein, nor any act performed or document executed pursuant to or in furtherance of the Stipulation or the settlement: (a) is or may be deemed to be or may be used as an admission of, or evidence of, the validity of any Released Claim, the truth of any of the allegations in the Litigation, of any wrongdoing, fault, or liability of the Released Defendants, or that Class Representatives or any Settlement Class Members have suffered any damages, harm, or loss; or (b) is or may be deemed to be or may be used as an admission of, or evidence of, any fault or omission of any Released Defendants in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceeding in any court, administrative agency, or other tribunal.

24. The Court reserves the right to adjourn the date of the Settlement Hearing without further notice to the Members of the Settlement Class, and retains jurisdiction to consider all further applications arising out of or connected with the proposed settlement. The Court may approve the settlement, with such modifications as may be agreed to by the Settling Parties, if appropriate, without further notice to the Settlement Class.

25. In the event that the Stipulation is not approved by the Court or the settlement set forth in the Stipulation is terminated or fails to become effective in accordance with its terms, (i) the Settling Parties shall be restored to their respective positions in the Litigation as of January 18, 2022 and shall promptly raise with the Court any relief requested concerning the case schedule; and (ii) the Settlement Amount shall be refunded, to the extent provided in Paragraph 7.5 and 7.7 of the Stipulation, pursuant to written instructions from counsel for Defendants as set forth in the Stipulation. In such event, the terms and provisions of the Stipulation, except as set forth in the Stipulation, shall be null and void, have no further force and effect, and shall not be used in the Litigation or in any other proceeding for any purpose, and this Order, in accordance with the terms of the Stipulation, shall be treated as vacated, nunc pro tunc, and shall not be used in this Litigation or in any other proceeding for any purpose.

26. Pending final determination of whether the proposed settlement should be approved, neither Class Representatives nor any Settlement Class Member, directly or indirectly, representatively, or in any other capacity, shall commence or prosecute against any of the Defendants any action or proceeding in any court or tribunal asserting any Released Claims.

This provision shall not apply to Direct Action Plaintiffs.

27.
